

(G) C G
I was raised by a maid who came from Martinique
D7 G
She wore geckos 'round her neck, bracelets on her feet

(G) C G
 A superstitious woman from the land of sugar cane
 D7 G
 She'd sing the sun to bed and dance out in the rain
 C D C D G D7 G
 Dance out, dance out, dance out in the rain
 (G) C G
 She'd excite us with the legend that the Africans told
 D7 G
 About a red iguana who turned lava into gold
 (G) C G
 We'd mount an expedition heading out into the bay
 D7 G
 Superstitious children playing pirate for the day

 C7 G
 Off to see the lizard, off to see the lizard...
 C D Em C Em7 D7 G
 Deja, deja, deja vu, believe it and it will come true
 C D Em C Em7 D7 G
 Veja, veja, veja du what works for me might work for you

 G - C - G | G - D7 - G (x2)

Verse:

(G) C G
 Being rich and famous seems to have its ups and downs
 D7 G
 That's the price you pay for being troubadours and clowns
 (G) C G
 Godzilla's halitosis it be vaporizing cars
 D7 G
 Elvis up in Michigan or maybe out on Mars
 C D C D G D7 G
 Dance out, dance out, dance out to the stars
 (G) C G
 But living in the briar patch ain't what it appears
 D7 G
 Sooner or later you gotta face your fears
 (G) C G
 I heard from the parrot verbalizing in the trees
 D7 G
 I heard it in the song line of the Aborigines...

C7 G
 Off to see the lizard, off to see the lizard...
 C D Em C Em7 D7 G
 Deja, deja, deja vu, believe it and it will come true
 C D Em C Em7 D7 G
 Veja, veja, veja du what works for me might work for you

 G - C - G | G - D7 - G (x2)

Verse:

(G) C G
 I got problems with my brain underneath my curls
 D7 G
 Problems with Lorraine and all the other girls
 (G) C G
 Love a wealthy woman and the pretty plane she flies

If you think this sounds confusing you should see it through my eyes
 C D C D G D7 G
 Dancin', Dancin', Dancin', through my eyes
 (G) C G
 I'm turning off the waterfall the tourists can go home
 D7 G
 Feel it's time to travel time to write a poem
 (G) C G
 Time to seek some therapy I'm goin' walkabout
 D7 G
 Answers are the easy parts questions raise the doubt

 C7 G
 Off to see the lizard, off to see the lizard...
 C D Em C Em7 D7 G
 Deja, deja, deja vu, believe it and it will come true
 C D Em C Em7 D7 G
 Veja, veja, veja du what works for me might work for you