

Princess In Rags - Gene Pitney

Strumming Pattern: D, DU, UDU

Chords Used:

The diagrams show the following chord structures:

- C: Fretboard with open strings, fingers 1, 2, 3 on strings 1, 2, 3 respectively. Strumming: V, III.
- C7: Fretboard with open strings, fingers 1, 2, 3, 4 on strings 1, 2, 3, 4 respectively. Strumming: V, III.
- F: Fretboard with open strings, fingers 1, 2, 3, 4 on strings 1, 2, 3, 4 respectively. Strumming: V, III.
- D: Fretboard with open strings, fingers 1, 2, 3 on strings 1, 2, 3 respectively. Strumming: V, III.
- G: Fretboard with open strings, fingers 1, 2, 3, 4 on strings 1, 2, 3, 4 respectively. Strumming: V, III.
- G7: Fretboard with open strings, fingers 1, 2, 3 on strings 1, 2, 3 respectively. Strumming: V, III.
- D7: Fretboard with open strings, fingers 1, 2, 3 on strings 1, 2, 3 respectively. Strumming: V, III.

There's a girl who lives down the track,
 in a little shack made of timber wood.
 And her clothes are all hand-me-downs,
 from the folks in town who treat her so good.

CHORUS:

Though she hasn't got a dime,
 I'm so proud that she's all mine..
 cause to me she's a Princess in rags.

#2.

Now her Dad, he's a worn-out man,
 prayin' if he can make enough to eat.
 And her Mom cleans for everyone,
 till the day is done, just to make ends meet.

CHORUS:#2.

All her wealth is in her charms,
 and the sweetness of her arms..

how I love my poor Princess in rags.

#3.

I know some day I'll find a way
to take her out of this old place.
I'll work and slave, scrimp and save,
To change her rags to silk and lace.

#4.

Though it hurts and my body aches..
From the pain it takes just to set things right.
But for now I must be content,
with each moment spent in her arms each night.

#5.

She's the only girl for me,
and some day it's gotta be..
Just me and my Princess in rags...(x2)