

I Will Wait - Mumford & Sons
 Tuning: C A C G C E
 live: no capo
 album recording: capo 1

Notes: This song is very tricky to play and VERY hard to sing. The song is basically a roller coaster! However, I think I did a good enough job for instruction. I am playing it just a LITTLE bit different in terms of strumming to make it easier.

Strumming Pattern: You might not believe this, but it's actually just DD, DUDU with everything else being more percussive/muting. The x's indicate when the chords/notes are to be muted. Mute the indicated pieces by using the palm of your picking hand. Try to mute the lower strings and allow the higher strings to ring just a bit.

Low E - tune DOWN to C
 A string - same
 D string - tune DOWN to C
 G string - same
 B string - tune UP to C
 High E - same
