

Hurt – Johnny Cash (NIN)

Strumming Pattern: all downstrokes (at Chorus)

You may choose to use a capo on the first fret OR play it open. You may still play the chord shapes regardless to which option you choose. If you use a capo on the first fret, remember that the capo is now 'fret zero' so play the chords relatively. Pick out the notes in each chord until you reach the G PRIOR to the chorus. Begin downstroke strumming on the G and continue all the way through the chorus strumming.
