RIFF: Low E|-2--3--4--5--|

Intro: Bb – C5 – D5 – (riff)

          D5                                  G5                                  D5
Now if I were a brick layer, I wouldn't build just anything
G5  D5
If I were a ball player, I wouldn't play no second string
Bb  C5  D5 (riff)
If I were some jewelry baby, lord I'd have to be a diamond ring

D5                                  G5                                  D5
If I were a secret, lord I never would be told
G5  D5
If I were a jug of wine, lord my flavor would be old
          Bb                                  C5  D5 (riff)
I could be almost anything, but it got to be 24 karat solid gold.

(note: this is NOT an error in the progression. It goes as shown below)

D5
If I were a gambler you know I'd never lose...

  G5
And if I were a guitar player, Lord I'd have to play the blues.

D5 - Bb - C5 - D5 (riff)

D5                                  G5                                  D5
If I was a hacksaw my blade would be razor sharp.
G5  D5
If I were a politician I could prove that monkeys talk.
          Bb                                  C5  D5 (riff)
You can find the tallest building, Lord I'd have me the house on top.

(D5 - G5 - D5 | G5 - D5 | Bb - C5 - D5 (riff)

          D5                                  G5                                  D5
I'm the penthouse pauper; I got nothin' to my name.

          G5                                  D5
I'm the penthouse pauper; baby I got nothing to my name.

          Bb                                  C5  D5 (riff)
I can be most anything cuz' when you got nothin' it's all the same.

(then D5 - G5 - D5 | G5 - D5 | Bb - C5 - D5 - riff - D5)
