E Abm C#m Abm
 I'm a-walkin' through the summer nights
 E Abm C#m Abm
 The jukebox playing low
 E Abm C#m Abm
 Yesterday everything was goin' too fast
 E Abm C#m Abm
 Today it's moving too slow.

A Dsus2 A Dsus2
 I got no place left to turn
 A Dsus2 A B
 I got nothing left to burn
 E Abm C#m Abm
 Don't know if I saw you If I would kiss you or kill you
 E Abm C#m Abm
 It probably wouldn't matter to you anyhow
 A E B F#
 You left me standin' in the doorway cryin'
 A E
 I got nothing to go back to now.

E Abm C#m Abm
 The light in this place is so bad
 E Abm C#m Abm
 Makin' me sick in the head
 E Abm C#m Abm
 All the laughter is just makin' me sad
 E Abm C#m Abm
 The stars have turned cherry red.

A Dsus2 A Dsus2
I'm strummin' on my gay guitar
A Dsus2 A B
Smokin' a cheap cigar
E Abm C#m Abm
The ghost of our old love has not gone away
E Abm C#m Abm
Don't look it like it will any time soon
A E B F#
You left me standin' in the doorway cryin'
A E
Under the midnight moon.

E Abm C#m Abm
Maybe they'll get me, and maybe they won't
E Abm C#m Abm
But not tonight and it won't be here
E Abm C#m Abm
There are things I could say but I don't
E Abm C#m Abm
I know the mercy of God must be near.

A Dsus2 A Dsus2
I've been ridin' the midnight train
A Dsus2 A B
Got ice water in my vein.

E Abm C#m Abm
I would be crazy if I took you back
E Abm C#m Abm
It would go up against every rule
A E B F#
You left me standin' in the doorway cryin'
A E
sufferin' like a fool.

E Abm C#m Abm
When the last rays of daylight go down
E Abm C#m Abm
Buddy you're older or more
E Abm C#m Abm
I can hear the church bells ringin' in the yard
E Abm C#m Abm
I wonder who they're ringin' for?

A Dsus2 A Dsus2
I know I can't win
A Dsus2 A B
