D G
Let me ask you somethin'
D G
What time of the day do you like to make love?
D G
Have you ever made love just before breakfast?
D G
Have you ever made love while you watched the late, late show?
D G
Well, let me ask you this
D G
Have you ever made love on a couch?
D G
Well, let me ask you this
D G
Have you ever made love on the back seat of a car?
D G
I remember one time I made love on the back seat of a car
D G
And the police came and shined his light on me, and I said:
D G D G
'I'm strokin', that's what I'm doin', I be strokin'!"

I stroke it to the east, and I stroke it to the west

[Verse]

D G
Let me ask you something
D G
How long has it been since you made love, huh?
D G
Did you make love yesterday?
D G
Did you make love last week?
D G
Did you make love last year?
D G
Or maybe it might be that you plannin' on makin' love tonight
D G
But just remember, when you start making love
D G
You make it hard, long, soft, short, and be strokin'
D G
I be strokin'

[Chorus]

D G
I stroke it to the east, and I stroke it to the west
D G
And I stroke it to the woman that I love the best
D C G D C G
I be strokin'

[Verse]

D G
Now, when I start making love to my woman
D G
I don't stop until I know she's sassified
D G
And I can always tell when she gets sassified
D G
because when she gets sassified she start calling my name
D G
She'd say: 'Clarence Carter, Clarence Carter, Clarence Carter
D G
Clarence Carter, ooh shit, Clarence Carter'
D G
The other night I was strokin' my woman

D G
 And it got so good to her, you know what she told me
 D G
 Let me tell you what she told me, she said:
 D G
