

Honky Tonk Man by Dwight Yoakam

[Chorus]

Well, I'm a honky tonk man and I can't seem to stop
I love to give the girls a whirl to the music of an old jukebox
But when my money's all gone, I'm on the telephone singing
Hey, hey, mama can your daddy come home

[Verse]

Now I'm living wild and dangerously
But I've got plenty of company
When the moon comes up and the sun goes down
I can't wait to see the lights of town

[Chorus]

'Cause I'm a honky tonk man and I can't seem to stop
I love to give the girls a whirl to the music of an old jukebox
But when my money's all gone, I'm on the telephone singing
Hey, hey, mama can your daddy come home

[Solo]

E A E B7 E

[Chorus]

'Cause I'm a honky tonk man and I can't seem to stop
I love to give the girls a whirl to the music of an old jukebox
But when my money's all gone, I'm on the telephone singing
Hey, hey, mama can your daddy come home

[Verse]

E B7
A pretty little girl and a jug of wine
A E
Well that's what it takes to make a honky tonk time
B7
With the jukebox moaning those honky tonk sounds
A E
I can't wait to lay my money down

[Chorus]

E
'Cause I'm a honky tonk man and I can't seem to stop
A E
I love to give the girls a whirl to the music of an old jukebox
B7
But when my money's all gone, I'm on the telephone singing
E
Hey, hey, mama can your daddy come home

[Break]

E drum fill

[Chorus]

E
'Cause I'm a honky tonk man and I can't seem to stop
A E
I love to give the girls a whirl to the music of an old jukebox
B7
But when my money's all gone, I'm on the telephone singing
E
Hey, hey, mama can your daddy come home
