[Verse 1]
             E
I won't be around this old town anymore for a long long time
             E
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line
             E   B7   E
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line
        E
I woke up my baby was gone without her I don't need no home
             E
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line

```
                 E                                       B7                              E
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line

[Pre-Chorus]
            A                            E
Went to the bank to get my dough I don't care where I go
                    E                                     B7
Gonna' push this rig 'til I push that girl out of my mind
        A                             E
If somebody wants to know what's become of this so and so
              E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line
              E                            B7                        E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line

[Chorus]
          A                                 E
New York City, Old St. Joe, Albuquerque New Mexico
          E                                       B7
This old rig is humming and rolling and doing fine
          A                             E
If somebody wants to know what's become of this so and so
              E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line
              E                            B7                        E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line

[Solo]
E        E         E    B7   E
E        E         E    B7   E
E        E         E    B7   E

[Chorus]
          A                            E
New York City, Old St. Joe, Albuquerque New Mexico
          E                                       B7
This old rig is humming and rolling she's doing fine
          A                             E
If somebody wants to know what's become of this so and so
                E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line
                E                          B7                        E
Tell em' I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line
```

[Outro]
                E
I won't be around this old town anymore for a long long time
              E
Gonna hit the road and start looking for the end of that long white line
              E   B7   E
Tell 'em I'm somewhere looking for the end of that long white line
