The Truth by Jason Aldean

G
[Verse 1]
G   C
Tell 'em all I'm on vacation
G   C
Say I went to visit friends
G   C
That you ain't heard or seen from me in quite a while
G   C
When they ask you where I've been
D   Em   D
Tell 'em I'm out on the west coast where it don't ever rain
                              C
And that I'm probably doin' fine

[Chorus]
C   G   D
Just don't tell 'em I've gone crazy
C   G   D
I'm still strung out over you
C   Em   D   C
Tell 'em anything you want to, just don't tell 'em all the truth
                        Am   D
Yeah, don't tell 'em all the truth

[Verse 2]
G   C
Tell 'em all I'm out in Vegas
G   C
Blowin' every dollar I ever made
G   C
Tell 'em that I must be into something bad for me, 'cause
G   C
I sure lost a lot of weight
D   Em   D
Tell 'em I'm out on the road with some old rock and roll band
                            C livin' like a gypsy can

[Chorus]
C   G   D
Just don't tell 'em I've gone crazy

C                          G     D
I'm still strung out over you
C                    Em            D              C
Tell 'em anything you want to, just don't tell 'em all the truth
                     Am        D
Yeah, don't tell 'em all the truth

[Bridge]
      C                        G           D              C
The truth is that I'm askin' you to lie, and we both know that it ain't right
C                    Em            D     C
If you ever loved me please, have some mercy on me

[Instrumental]
G D C G

[Chorus]

C                    Em            D              C
Tell 'em anything you want to, just don't tell 'em all the truth
                     Am        D
Yeah, don't tell 'em all the truth

            G    C
I still need you
        C         G   C
Yeah, that's the truth
            G   C
I still love you
          C          G   C  G
Baby, that's the truth
