

"Norwegian Wood"

Capo 2

Performance Notes:

Easy cheesy for this version! The original is not nearly as easy, but this stripped-down version will help you learn the actual version much more efficiently. This is a great one to strum along with. I always screw up vocally at the end of each C to D. The key is just not in my range I guess, so you may want to watch that as well when playing it on your own. I seem to drop the line so low at times you can't really tell what I'm saying, but as we all know that's not the point here. I think you will do very well with this version and some of you might finally be saying 'YES! I can finally play it!' (even if it is just the E-Z version right?!)

Verse

D
I once had a girl, or should I say
C D
she once had me.

She showed me her room, isn't it good?
C D
Norwegian wood.

Chorus

Dm G
She asked my to stay and told me to sit anywhere,
Dm Em A
So I looked around and I noticed there wasn't a chair.

Verse

D
I sat on a rug, biding my time,
C D
drinking her wine.

We talked until two, and then she said,
C D
It's time for bed.

Chorus

Dm G
She told me she worked in the morning and started to laugh,
Dm Em A
I told her I didn't, and crawled off to sleep in the bath.

Verse

D C D
And when I awoke, I was alone, this bird has flown.

So I lit a fire, isn't it good?
C D (end on D)
Norwegian wood.
