

Ramblin' Man by The Allman Brothers Band

[Chorus]

G            F            C            G
Lord I was born a Ramblin' man
G                            C                            D
Tryin' to make a living and doing the best I can
C                            G                            Em                            C
When it's time for leaving I hope you'll understand
G                            D                            G
That I was born a Ramblin' man

G                            F                            G
My father was a Gambler down in Gorgia
G                            C                            D
He wound up on the wrong end of a gun
C                            G                            Em                            C
And I was born in the back seat of a Greyhound bus
G                            D                            G
Rolling down highway forty-one

[Chorus]

G            F            C            G
Lord I was born a Ramblin' man
G                            C                            D
Tryin' to make a living and doing the best I can
C                            G                            Em                            C
When it's time for leaving I hope you'll understand
G                            D                            G
That I was born a Ramblin' man

G                            C                            D
I'm on my way to New Orleans this morning
G                            C                            D
Leavin' out of Nashville, Tennessee
C                            G                            Em                            C
they're always havin' a good time down on the Bayou, lord
G                            D                            G
Them delta women think the world of me

[Chorus]

G            F            C            G
Lord I was born a Ramblin' man
G                            C                            D
Tryin' to make a living and doing the best I can
C                            G                            Em                            C
When it's time for leaving I hope you'll understand
G                            D                            G
That I was born a Ramblin' man
