

Wake Up Little Susie - The Everly Brothers

Tempo: 192 BPM! (VVVEEERRRRYYY fast)

This one is super tricky! It's actually ALL down and up the whole time, but the chords repeat so often it's crazy. I goofed up somewhere near the end, and you'll probably hear it, but it is HARD to move so fast on an acoustic. Good luck with that. Of course it's completely possible - just tricky. I think I got the chords RIGHT on with each line. This time I avoided duplicating too many chords over and over. Because it is so fast I thought it might confuse you even more. Trust me on this - I'd recommend starting with a simple D,U,D,U over and over. You can mute when you're ready.

Strumming Pattern: DUDU (no breaks between until you're ready)

Intro: D5 - F5-G5-F5 (x2)
