(Sorry about the video. My voice was SHOT by the time I got to this one. You'll hear me mess up on a vocal line at "knew that someone had to stop the rain." If you didn't notice it then I slid through it - this is something you'll want to learn to avoid having to restart the song in your own performance. TRY to cover it up! If you DID notice it good catch! This is a VERY vocally challenging song due to the key change to Eb!)
