

Don't Come Around Here No More – Tom Petty

BPM: 80

Strumming Pattern: This one is weird, but it's accurate. It sounds weird because the bass line is the main focus, but the song is completely playable. D, DU, UDU is the overall pattern, so just pick out the notes in each chord in that fashion.

Chords Used:

F

Bb / A#

C

Gm

Am

5th fr

Riff Used:

The riff below is all 16th notes until the last note. It's a quarter. It's a bit fast but it's easy to play.

5 5 5 5 3 3 3 3 2 2 2 2 3

Additional Note: As weird as it seems, the A* is just the fifth fret note on the Low E string. Basically he 'hints' at the riff above but only plays the fifth fret on the Low E string instead.
