Intro: D – F#m7 – Em7 – A7

D F#m7 Em7 – A7
 I came into town with a knapsack on my shoulder
 Bm D G F#m7 Em7 A7
 And a pocket full of stories that I just had to tell.

D F#m7 Em7 A7
You know I've knocked around a bit, and I've had my share of small town glories
Bm D G F#m7 Em7 A7
It's time to hit the city and that crazy carousel
G A7 F#m7 Bm
I been feeling sorry for myself
Em7 A7 Bm D G
But you know I was only lonely like everybody else, until...

Chorus

D Em7
You brought your Sunday morning sunshine
Cmaj7 G D
Here into my Monday morning rain.
(D) Em7
You taught me happiness just one time
Cmaj7 G D
It keeps on coming back again.

(D) F#m7 Em7 A7
These streets were never highways, I had not known the sky above
Bm D G F#m7 Em7 A7
These days were never my days for I had not known your love
D F#m7 Em7 A7
It's funny how a city can put on a different face
Bm D G F#m7 Em7 A7
When it holds the one you care for it becomes a different place
G A7 F#m7 Bm
And I never felt so far from alone
Em7 A7 G
Baby you brought me halfway home
Bm D G D
Oh, baby, you brought me halfway home

(Repeat Chorus to end – end on D)
